The image shows a sheet of dot grid paper with a central grid of dots. On the left side, there is a margin with green arrows pointing up and down, alternating in pairs. The right side of the grid is numbered from 1 to 43. There are horizontal lines at rows 1, 44, and 48. The paper is numbered 43, 42, 41, 40, 39, 38, 37, 36, 35, 34, 33, 32, 31, 30, 29, 28, 27, 26, 25, 24, 23, 22, 21, 20, 19, 18, 17, 16, 15, 14, 13, 12, 11, 10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1 on the right side. The numbers 48, 47, 46, 45, and 44 are also visible on the right side, corresponding to the horizontal lines.

This page features a dot grid layout with 52 numbered rows. The rows are numbered 1 through 52 on the right side. Each row is marked with a green arrow on the left side, indicating the direction of writing. The arrows alternate between pointing up and down, starting with an up arrow for row 1. The grid is composed of small brown dots. There are three horizontal green lines drawn across the page: one at the top of row 1, one at the bottom of row 52, and one at the bottom of row 48. The page is otherwise blank, with no text or other markings.

The image shows a vertical sheet of paper with a dot grid. The grid consists of 50 rows and 20 columns of dots. On the left side, there are green arrows pointing up and down, alternating in pairs for each row. On the right side, there is a green vertical column with numbers 1 through 50, corresponding to each row. The numbers are arranged in a slightly irregular pattern, with some rows having two numbers. The grid is used for writing or drawing.
