Rabbits and stripes for our darling

On the left a sweater with matching pants, the small rabbits are knitted in fairisle or intarsia. This set will suit boys or girls.

Right a stripy sweater with embroidered flowers. All four models are simple to knit and suitable for beginners. Strong colours are fashionable for babies today, but white, pink and light blue are not ruled out, as they are suitable any time of the year.

Don't forget to check your tension!

Before starting to knit, check the number of stitches and rows to 10 cm against those given in the pattern. Cast on at least 70 sts and knit 10 rows at various tension settings to find the one most suitable for your yarn. At this setting, knit 10 rows. Knit 1 row contrast yarn. Knit 30 rows in pattern and mark stitch 21 at left and right of centre with contrast yarn. Knit a further 30 rows. Knit 1 row contrast. Knit 10 rows pattern. Remove knitting from machine and pull lengthwise. Let knitting rest for several hours. With the Knitmaster "Green" ruler for standard gauge or "Blue" ruler for chunky machines, determine the number of stitches and rows between the marks of contrast yarn. If they do not agree with the tensions given, adjust the settings, knit a different size or work out the number of stitches needed for the garment.

Care of knitted garments

Taking care of woollen garments prolongs their life and shape. Never hang sweaters on coathangers, their weight will pull them out of shape. Always use suitable detergents and follow manufacturers instructions. Use cold water if possible. Rinse well. Don't wring, but lay garment flat on a towel. Roll up the towel and squeeze gently. Pull garment to shape and dry flat.

Left: a light sweater with broad stripes and anchor is essential holiday wear. The cardigan in the centre keeps cold winds at bay. Garterstitch with a shawlcollar is very professional. Lower centre: sleeveless top in colourful tuckstitch to wear on its own or under something. Right: A navy suit with blue-white leggings and a hooded tunic top. Lots of white ships cross the sea. Better start soon, the next holiday is around the corner.

We love sweets!

Left: Pineapples and melons, wonderful! In fashion even youngsters are with it! To go with the sweater a cheerfully patterned jacket with plain ribs and collar. Right a pair of dungarees in bright yellow. The straps cross on the back for a good fit. The best is the large icecream cone on the bib.

Left a cardigan to go with the sweater - same colours, similar pattern. Soft cotton is nice to wear. Altogether a good selection.

Salmon with contrast - very appealing

All three models are knitted in the same cotton yarn, easy to knit! the styles vary from casual to smart, you only have to choose. On the left, circles in various colours dominate. Follow the chart and it will be OK. This sweater is suitable for using small amounts of yarn. Centre: Lines as drawn with a ruler will suit practical natures. Especially effective are the lurex stripes, making it suitable for boys or girls. Right: Large intarsia flowers bloom on a salmon background. Simple and decorative. That's how to stroll around the farm and feed the horses.

You will be delighted with this selection. Bright colours such as sharp pink, purple and mint suit all babies and provide a new dimension. Left a set of five pieces. You have the choice of two sweaters and two hats to wear with the trousers. The borders are in fairisle, but the bows and hearts are embroidered.

Right: "My friend stays with me!"

Animals are favourite with small children.
