Welcome to machine knitting

Welcome new readers and old friends! Those of you who have been a Stitchin' Time reader will notice a few differences to our new book: new style patterns which are easy to follow but shorter and, dare I say, sweeter than before, more fashion, more patterns - 36 in all - more creative ideas, and more professional looking garments.

I know that so many of you look forward to our "'Creative Knitting'’ pages and will be disappointed to find them missing this issue, don't worry, they shall be back next time!

We have searched much further afield to collect ideas for garments and I must say that all of us have had a lot of fun doing so and I'm sure that you will find this book among the most exciting in the machine knitting field.

FAR from being resplendent in my birthday suit, I was wearing a boring combination of jeans and T-shirt.

While the ratherchiclittle eye-catcher you see me sporting here was just so much unknitted yarn.

But give me a style I fancy, my Brother knitting machine and three hours free of the housework, and it's as good as made.

Though don't get the idea that I'm a natural knock-out with the needles.

Unfortunately, most of the credit goes to my Brother KH881.

All I do is choose the wool, trace the garment pattern that I want onto my machine's patterning chart, flick the switches for the stitches and push the knitting carriage to and fro.

"3hours have

The patterning chart even tells me when to increase and decrease.

It really is that simple!
In fact, the stitches and patterns that used to be only mysterious words in knitting mags: plating, intarsia, fairisle and tuck, have now become second nature. Even if I do say so myself.

Ah well, I always knew that I had it in me.

It just took my little Brother to bring it out..."
